Reward Offer in the Murders of Rodrigo Gonzalez, Destiny Monique Aguirre, and Christopher Jimenez

On April 25, 2015, Los Angeles County Sheriff and Fire Department personnel responded to a call of a possible arson attack at the Cheque Tires, at 1252 N. Santa Anita Ave. in South El Monte. Upon their arrival, they witnessed a badly burned young man, Rodrigo Gonzalez, who later died of his injuries at the scene. Destiny Monique Aguirre and Christopher Jimenez were later found dead, inside the building.

Investigators reviewed surveillance footage from a nearby business that showed a gold 2002 Nissan Altima at the scene. Upon tracking down the vehicle, an arrest was made of Baldwin Park resident, Robert Fuentes, who now faces three counts of murder with special circumstance of committing multiple murders.

Investigators believe there are additional suspects in the case and hope that by offering a reward, additional witnesses with information will be motivated to come forward to help apprehend and convict the suspect(s) in this heinous crime.
